FOREWORD

AT THE END OF OUR HIGH SCHOOL CAREERS, WE OF THE CLASS OF 1942 ARE READY TO GO INTO THE OUTSIDE WORLD TO GAIN MORE KNOWLEDGE, TO FIND OUR PLACES IN LIFE, AND TO HELP PRESERVE THE PRICELESS HERITAGE WHICH BELONGS TO ALL AMERICANS. THE STAFF HAS PRODUCED THIS BOOK TO REPRESENT, AS WELL AS IT CAN, THE MEMORIES OF THE PAST THREE YEARS AND TO SERVE AS A PERMANENT REMINDER OF THE PART OUR SCHOOL HAS PLAYED IN MAKING US GOOD AMERICANS.

SPONSOR'S MESSAGE

At this most serious time in the history of our country, you are going out to take your place in a world at war. Never before has a class gone from our school with so great a responsibility toward the future, so great a stake in the future, so great an opportunity to have a hand in molding the future. You will be the makers and we, your elders, are pinning our hopes to your keeping the faith with those first Americans, who thought enough of liberty to place it above ease, security, even life itself, and so to make possible the world we have known, where work and friendliness, laughter and confidence in one another have drawn the plan—our America.

THE ARX ALMA SONG

BY MISS MILDRED E. RUNYEON

★

FOURSQUARE HER TOWERS RISE,
ARX ALMA FAIR!
WIDE-SPREAD HER BEAUTY LIES,
ARX ALMA RARE!
SHELTERED BENEATH HER WALLS
SHE KEEPS HER OWN
CHILDREN OF LIBERTY;
WE CALL HER HOME.

EVER HER CARE SHALL BE
TO KEEP US TRUE,
UPRIGHT, ASPIRING,
WITH FERVOR DUE;
CROWNING OUR VISIONS ALL
SKYWARD DOTH GLEAM
OUR SHINING CITADEL,
STRONG AND SERENE.

ALL DOWN THE YEARS TO COME,
REVERENT WE'LL BE!
TURNING OUR HEARTS AND STEPS
HOMEWARD TO THEE;
AND THOUGH OUR WESTWARD WAYS
MAY LEAD US FAR,
WE'LL KEEP ARX ALMA PURE,
OUR GUIDING STAR

THEME EXPLANATION

EVER SINCE THE BEGINNING OF TIME MAN HAS STRIVEN TO GAIN LIBERTY FROM OPPRESSION. AS WE VIEW THE WORLD BEFORE US, WE REALIZE THE VALUE OF THE LIBERTIES WE ENJOY IN AMERICA NOW, NOT ONLY BECAUSE OF THE VISION OF THE FOUNDING FATHERS BUT ALSO BECAUSE OF THE COUNTLESS HUMBLE FOLKS WHO LIVED BRAVELY TO GIVE THAT VISION REALITY. BUT EVEN THOUGH LIBERTY HAS BEEN ACHIEVED THROUGH THE AGE-LONG STRUGGLE OF FREEDOM-LOVING PEOPLE, IT ELUDES THOSE WHO DO NOT CONTINUALLY STRIVE TO PRESERVE IT. WE HAVE, THEREFORE, MADE LIBERTY THE THEME OF THIS BOOK BECAUSE, IN THESE TROUBLED TIMES WHEN THE FLAME OF LIBERTY FLICKERS IN SO LARGE A PART OF THE WORLD, WE WANT PARTICULARLY TO KEEP ITS GLOW IN THE HEARTS OF OUR GENERATION; FOR NOW SAFEGUARDING LIBERTY REQUIRES MORE COURAGE THAN EVER BEFORE.

Faculty

No symbol of freedom could better introduce our faculty section than the Statue of Liberty. Just as she guides refugees to the shores of our land where a share of liberty awaits them that is greater than any elsewhere, so have our teachers guided us to the shores of an active participation in the good American way of life. Yet we could never be really prepared for life in a democracy if our preparation were controlled to such an extent that it offered no chance for personal initiative; the liberal structure of our educational system has been responsible for our teachers' guiding, not forcing, us in our selected fields. Moreover, the freedom our instructors have in teaching only what they believe explains the lack of that hypocrisy which so easily reflects itself in the minds of the pupils. The fact that liberty was so clearly important in our schooling has caused our education to be truly interesting and serviceable.

PRINCIPAL—JOHN H. EISENHAUER

"It is the common fate of the indolent to see their rights become a prey to the active. The condition upon which God hath given liberty to man is eternal vigilance; which condition if he break, servitude is at once the consequence of his crime and the punishment of his guilt." Thus spoke John Philpot Curran in 1790. "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty" is the way we have been quoting Curran. This is the theme of my valedictory to you, Seniors.

Crafty leaders work in devious ways their wonders to perform. The vigilant citizen weighs carefully his words and seriously ponders all possible interpretations of both his words and actions. You have now completed a program of study that should have given you the ability to compare what is happening now with what has happened in the past. "History repeats itself" but not in an identical way. Hence you will have to be able to ascertain the real motives behind the overt acts of your leaders.

What I am trying to say to you in this small space is that you must at all times be alert, vigilant, thoughtful, diligent, and courageous. Always remember that eternal vigilance is the price of your liberty.

V. P. WILLIAM L. FINK

The long voyage home from Europe in the little ship Orca had almost ended, and we were in our cabins preparing our baggage for disembarkation. Suddenly a fellow-passenger who had been on deck rushed past our state-rooms, shouting enthusiastically: "We've seen her at last!" Hastily we finished packing and hurried on deck where there had gathered an excited crowd intently gazing upon the Statue of Liberty.

That statue means much to persons approaching American shores. To the stranger, it is a silent suggestion of happier tomorrows; to the returning citizen, it symbolizes those principles of government that have made our country great and kept her free.

Class of 1942: by means of precept and practice, your school has sought to acquaint you with the privileges and responsibilities that are inherent in democracy. We know that you will perpetuate your heritage, that you will ever strive to keep Liberty's torch shining brightly in a world where so many lights have gone out.

V. P. FLORENCE B. BEITENMAN

On the occasion of the 150th anniversary of the Bill of Rights, it is fitting that, in a Year Book dedicated to Liberty, there should be some mention of the four liberties that our forefathers, fearful of later oppression, especially safeguarded:

Freedom of speech
Freedom of worship
Freedom of the press
Freedom of peaceful assembly

Our most fervent wish for you, the Class of 1942, is this: May the land in which you live continue under your guidance to be a land where these four liberties, properly observed and protected, are to you as the air about you. With this great inheritance, may you develop a feeling for the rights of others, a desire to secure the same privileges and opportunities for others that you wish for yourself. God speed!

Today, as never before, the liberty which is the very base of all our lives is faced with its greatest peril. During our history we can find only one parallel to this situation, the bitter days of the Civil War Years, 1861-1863. Then Lincoln, the Kentucky-born plowboy whom liberty gave the opportunity to become our most beloved president, was fighting to free all the peoples of our country, just as today we are fighting to free the peoples of all countries. There is poetic justice in the fact that liberty was saved by a man she alone was able to create. His trials could not be appreciated by any other generation so well as our own. We are feeling, just as he did, some measure of uncertainty, but we feel too the love of liberty and the faith in it which convinced Abraham Lincoln that from the sorrows of his country would grow a greater nation, just as we are convinced that out of our troubles will come a better world.

Never before has a Senior Executive Committee been faced with the problems which confronted ours of the class of 1942. Forced to drop the Class Trip and curtail the decorations for the Senior Prom, these members, one from each homeroom, were faced with a pretty dark future. Yet they buckled down to work with a will, and their committee became the heart of all senior activity. Every member kept his homeroom well-informed on what the committee was doing, and explained the necessity of collecting dues. The executive committee even made the collecting of class dues an interesting affair, by conducting a race to see which homeroom would be first to have all its dues paid. Handicapped from the beginning, the 1942 Senior Executive Committee triumphed over all hardships.

Purpose: To prepare the script of the pageant to be presented by the class at the time of graduation.

Sponsor: MISS MILDRED RUNYEON

There are many phases of writing a pageant which are generally unknown to an outsider. In order to become thoroughly acquainted with the subject, Lincoln, each member of the class did extensive reference work. Next, the class made a trip back stage, where stage techniques were explained by Dr. Fink. Miss Beitenman very obligingly discussed costume problems with them and made clear the part costume might be made to play in building effective stage pictures. After a general outline of the pageant had been made, each member was placed on a committee of his own choice. Following this, the actual writing of the pageant began. When the first draft had been prepared, Dr. Fink, Miss Runyeon, and the executive committee criticized the script. Each committee then made corrections according to suggestion. With the acceptance of the final draft the long task of casting began.

Feature Section

We have chosen Paul Bunyan for the symbol of our feature section because he represents so well the rollicking humor of liberty-loving America, just as this section represents the laughter of our small part of America, laughter only liberty can insure. This liberty shows itself in every light-hearted giggle, every full-blown grin; but liberty is many things more. It is getting nervous before the first act in Senior Assembly; it is choosing your part in the Lincoln Pageant; it is putting up your own special decorations for the Senior Prom; it is being free to express your emotions, whatever they are; it is all the happiness you have ever had, or ever hope to have.

A. LINCOLN

The 1942 pageant pictures the varying stages in the life of the great Civil War leader, beginning with his ancestors who originated in our own Berks County. The governor's recognition of the services of Mordecai Lincoln, Abe's great-grandfather, forecast in some degree the future honors which were to be Lincoln's.

A youth filled with hardships did not daunt Lincoln in his quest for knowledge. Unaided, he secured for himself the education necessary to become a lawyer.

Lincoln's success during his years of law practice finally reached a climax with the Lincoln-Douglas debates. His sincerity and ready wit brought him into the national limelight and resulted in his later nomination as a dark-horse candidate for the presidency.

As a leader of a nation engaged in both mental and physical conflict, he faced long years of unhappiness and opposition. Despite this, his quiet strength and unwavering determination succeeded in uniting our war-torn country.

As a lasting tribute to this thoroughly human president, the American public has erected a shrine where Lincoln is hallowed in stone, just as he is hallowed in all our hearts. Yearly, millions of Americans come to this memorial to express their love and respect for our man of the ages.

WHO'S WHO OF '42

A is for Alma, her hair is so bright;
Work fills her day, and music her night.

B is for Bobby, our president shy;
If he goes away, the poor girls will cry.

C is for Connie, a wonderful miss,
For she has a smile that calls for a kiss.

D is for Donald, he sings a good bass,
A talented lad of this great human race.

E is for Erma, she's nice and she's jolly;
We'll never forget her, by gosh and by golly!

F is for Francis, who's sometimes too rough,
But our little vice-president sure knows his stuff.

G is for Gertie, of the Senior Committee;
Her friends are full legion 'cause she is so witty.

H is for Homer, a tumbler supreme;
Our titian-haired hero is some girl's big dream.

I is for Irene, who handles our money,
And if you don't pay her, you'll find it's not funny.

J is for Jimmy, a promising lad;
When he fails to be good, he's bound to be bad.

K is for Kathleen, a neat kid at heart;
She's always in school sports and ready to start.

L is for Louie, our Reading High pacer;
In all of Berks County, there's no better racer.

M is for Marian, a beauteous gal;
She's Prince Charming's sweetheart and every girl's pal.

WHO'S WHO OF '42

N is for Nora, a sister to Dora;
Her cute face is framed by a sweet, golden aura.

O is for Oliver, the witty mechanic;
The jokes that he cracks leave us all in a panic.

P is for pupils, who faithfully work,
But once in a while, a few of them shirk.

Q is for Quinn, her first name is Jean,
And one thing we're sure of, she's never been mean.

R is for Ruth, so tall and so slender,
With laughing brown eyes and a heart that is tender.

S is for Sammy, he looks like a bunny;
He's sweet as is sugar and his Ma calls him Honey.

T is for Tessie, her hair is so blond;
We'd like to inform you, of her we're all fond.

U is for Umbenhouer, Clarence comes first;
He cheers for the runners 'til his lungs nearly burst.

V is for Verna, she uses her brains,
And her happy smile is one of our gains.

W is for Willie, he's husky and tall;
He looks just like Harmon who carried the ball.

X is the X-ample we're leaving behind,
So all future classes will keep us in mind.

Y is for Yeich, a girl who wears glasses;
But don't you believe Parker's jibe about passes.

Z is for Zomzing, we're in a great hurry;
If this starts your name, then you go and worry.

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS

Flash! Reading High should have intra-mural sports. Flash! The sixth period should be given over to conferences between teachers and pupils. Flash! Reading High should have a revised marking system. The "Red and Black" goes to press in a vigorous attempt to bring the news to the students while it is still fresh and untouched, to add some humor to our work-a-day world, and to correct our school imperfections. Anything which the staff feels should be justly criticized is open to attack, not in the cautious words of the fear-ridden, but with the frankness of the free. No person in authority stops our presses or tells us what we may say. Our school paper is free as is the press of our wide-flung America.

THE FOUR

FREEDOM OF ASSEMBLY

Here we are, standing before the school talking over last night's experiences and planning for tomorrow night's events, gathering in our homerooms to have a last minute conversation before work begins, lingering in the halls between classes to exchange news with others, enjoying our food and our friendships in the cafeteria where all good fellows eat, running together on the playfield so that we can throw words back and forth, meeting on the esplanade to make appointments for downtown dates, or joining our friends in the gymnasium while a dance band plays our favorite tune. When we enter into these various groups, we are unconsciously exercising our right of assemblage. We would need to have our freedom taken away to realize how fortunate we are now.

FREEDOM OF RELIGION

Freedom of religion is more than worshipping God as we see fit; it is understanding and tolerating religions other than our own. In Reading High, this is brought about in many ways; one of the most important of these is the Girl Reserve religious meeting. Here girls of various faiths, sitting side by side on the floor, discuss their different religions: Protestant, Catholic, and Hebrew; for all realize that ignorance is the root of intolerance. There is no ridicule, no blind racial hatred, only an atmosphere of sincere interest and honest friendship. We are learning to safeguard this freedom of religion which meant so much to our forefathers that they forsook the security of their homes for the untried wilderness of this new country.

FREEDOMS

FREEDOM OF SPEECH

The dictionary has a technical definition for freedom of speech, but we American students need none; we know it is that part of our daily lives we just call talking. In school, the place where our uninhibited speaking does most good is Student Council. This is our group: of the students, by the students, and for the students. At meetings, the air is split with motions demanding no faculty selection of student committees, or complaining that Student Council hasn't been doing its duty. Every representative has a perfect right to speak, and needs only the recognition of the chair to do so. We are learning to express our thoughts sensibly, in order to use this sacred trust to its fullest, when the responsibility of government rests on our shoulders.

AND LASTLY: We do make, constitute, and appoint the faculty to be the Executor of this our last will and testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto subscribed our name, and affixed our seal, the twelfth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-two.

THE CLASS OF FORTY-TWO,
Reading Senior High School,
Reading, Pennsylvania

Activities

Liberty is important not only in civil life, but in our recreation, as well. Father Flanagan, who has written the foreward to this section, has shown how necessary it is for the balanced existence we all desire; with our recreation we build a defense against any bad habit that could come from too many idle hours. However, we all know that this recreation can be of actual good only if it is voluntary; forced recreation is not recreation at all, but only a very shabby substitute. So liberty is playing a greater part in our recreation than most of us realize.

There it is, when we express our opinion at I. R. C.; and there, when we volunteer for service on the Usher Staff; it is picking our own special club, and telling our best friend how we think it should be run; it is expressing our own opinion at Student Council, or telling the G. A. A. members our idea for a party; it is giving the school a chance to see our talent by signing up for orchestra or chorus; it is building our idea of the perfect model plane; it is learning the G. R. code; it is fitting ourselves to be better citizens not because we must participate in these activities, but because we want to.

Make Most of Your Leisure Time

During recent years the American people, both youth and adults, have found themselves with considerable leisure time on their hands. Make the most of your leisure time, boys and girls; broaden your interests with some leisure time activity.

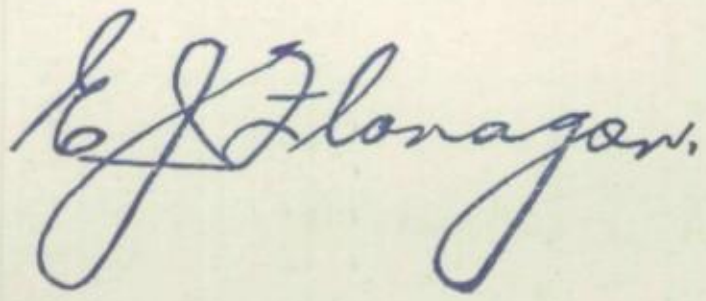
You will find merit in developing a hobby suitable to your own liking. Become a camera hobbiest, stamp collector, model airplane builder, like many of the boys at Boys Town.

Your hobby will broaden your trend of thought, make life a bit more interesting; I know of many cases where a hobby has later become a boy or girl's vocation.

I fear for the youth who idles his time away. I recommend that every boy's and girl's day be filled with activities to keep him properly occupied.

I plead with parents of growing boys and girls to help them find worth-while leisure time hobbies. I also urge communities to develop full-time youth programs so that all boys and girls, from both privileged and under-privileged families, may participate in these activities. Such programs will do away with too much leisure time for the youth of America.

My congratulations to the graduating seniors of the School District of Reading, Pennsylvania. God's blessing to each of you.



Rt. Rev. Msgr. E. J. Flanagan

"Guess what happened!" . . . "And I was almost late" . . . "Did you hear that?" . . . "No, it was yesterday" . . . "Then she said" . . . "And he has big brown eyes!" . . . Early and late there is a babble of voices . . . The playful winds toss about snatches of conversation.

Athletics

Participation in athletics offers an excellent picture of liberty in action. There is liberty in the choice of sport schedule, and there is also playing the game with that indefinable touch of American individualism that is liberty in its very essence. It is throwing a ball in the way you think is best that shows you are putting liberty into practice. It is playing soccer because you like soccer; it is using your own brains on the football field; it is the sound of pins dropping in the alley; it is the homerun you made in baseball; it is the sudden crack of the gun in cross-country; it is the right to build yourself into a better American through participation in any sport that you may choose.

Alice Marble Says:

Freedom: The American Way of Life! What a wonderful theme for your Year Book! I wonder if you people realize the significance of that word? Why there's magic in it! Freedom of speech—freedom of the press—and freedom in sports. Free to play what we want when we want to without any dictorial henchmen forbidding us. Yes, I know it's been said before, but it suddenly strikes me that this is a case where repetition is highly desirable. I refer to this statement that we Americans have much to be thankful for. Thankful first of all, that we are Americans with all the privileges attached thereto. Thankful that we can build ourselves up and make ourselves physically fit by indulging in all land and field sports. Thankful that we can work, play, dance, and sing when we feel like it, and not when others dictate that we feel like it. For this is the American Way of Living. Your America—and my America. Proud? You bet we're proud! So stand erect there, you boys and girls, head up, shoulders squared, and chin up. You people are the leaders of tomorrow. And if you can face the future, alert, keen, and with that chin up, why nobody's going to push you around. You students all have a definite responsibility to your Country and that responsibility is Good Health. You must be physically fit. It's to you we turn for co-operation, understanding, and enthusiasm. Are you going to casually shrug off our challenge or are you going to fall right in line—alert, eager, sparkling-eyed, and PHYSICALLY FIT FOR ANY EMERGENCY?

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Reading High's football record of four wins and four losses doesn't set the world on fire; but when one considers the fact that the team started the season with hardly any experienced players, the record becomes more impressive. After losing their first three games to three of the most powerful teams in Eastern Pennsylvania, the Knights came back to win four out of their last five games. They can't be given too much credit for performing this feat.

ALLENTOWN VS. READING
25—0

It was simply too much Kermitt Scott for Reading that enabled Allentown to gain its first victory over a Rock-coached team, 25 to 0. The Knights fought gamely but they didn't have the strength to cope with the Allentown powerhouse.

Led by Scott and Anderson, Allentown scored in the first and second periods, then added two more touchdowns in the last quarter. Allentown had marches of 49, 57, and 44 yards for their first three touchdowns. The Canaries set up their last touchdown when they intercepted a Reading pass in the waning minutes of the game. Scott, the big gun for the Canaries all afternoon, scored twice and helped set up the other touchdowns. Reading's lone bid for a score came early in the third quarter when, sparked by White, the Knights advanced to the Allentown 30, only to lose the ball there on a fumble. For the second straight game, White was the biggest Reading threat and his showing in these games gives promise that we shall hear plenty about this flashy junior halfback.

COATESVILLE VS. READING

Reading High's inexperienced team with but one hold-over from the 1940 starting line-up opened its season September 27 against a powerful Coatesville eleven. Inexperience was the main factor in the Knights' defeat by a veteran Coatesville team 20 to 0.

Reading didn't go down without fighting, however. Fumbles proved to be the downfall of the Knights. Coatesville took advantage of these fumbles to score twice in the first period and once again in the last quarter. Baker, husky fullback, scoring one touchdown and two extra points, proved to be the visitors' biggest threat. Musika and Matthews also tallied for Coatesville. Reading's most serious threat came in the second period when, led by Geiss and White, the Knights advanced to the Coatesville 15 yard line only to lose the ball on a costly fumble.

Palaferro, Kageos, and Souders along with Geiss and White stood out for a losing cause. Since it was the team's first game together, the defeat wasn't much of a surprise.

BETHLEHEM VS. READING
25—6

After being held in check for almost an entire half, Bethlehem's heavily-favored team unleashed a powerful attack to hand Reading its third straight defeat: 25-6. The game was not so much of a runaway, however, as the score would indicate. Reading fought the steam-rollers on even terms until there was less than a minute left in the first half. It was at this point that Bethlehem scored its first touchdown on a pass, Messics to Venninger, which was good for 62 yards. Bethlehem came back and scored three times in the second half: on a march of 66 yards, on an intercepted pass, and on a poor Reading punt.

Reading's first score of the season came in the third period when, sparked by White, the Knights marched up the field in a series of passes and runs. The drive was climaxed when White plunged over from the four for what proved to be Reading's lone score of the afternoon.

Although it was another defeat for Reading, the team showed great improvement, especially in passing, for they completed 7 out of 10 passes.

READING VS. YORK
19—6

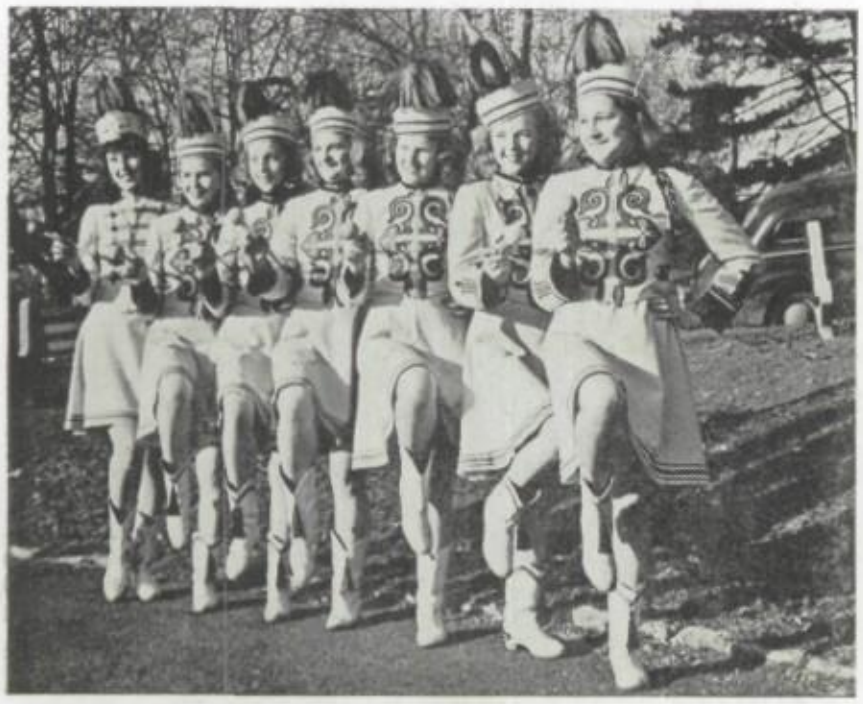
Reading High finally came into its own at York, trampling the Roses by the count of 19 to 6. Sparked by White and May, the Knights pushed across two touchdowns in the second quarter, and another one in the last period.

York got off to a good start when Bud Hoofnagle, York ace, intercepted a pass in the first minute of play and raced 50 yards for a score. From then on, however, it was all Reading. The Knights scored on marches of 68 and 63 yards and set up another score by recovering a kickoff. Daron, Shugars, and White were the boys who scored touchdowns in Reading's first victory of the year. Earl Geiss was another standout for the Reading cause with his good blocking. Reading was a different team at York, finally getting the blocking which is necessary for a winning team.

READING VS. LANCASTER
13—6

In a game which was played in a pouring rain, Reading scored twice in the first quarter to beat Lancaster 13 to 6. Although the field was a sea of mud, the Knights lost no time in going to work on the Red Roses. Reading opened the scoring on a 60 yard march which reached its climax when White threw a short pass to Kageos for the score. The Knights got a good break when they recovered their own kickoff on the Lancaster 20. From this point Earl Geiss smashed into paydirt on three successive plunges. So completely did the Knights out-play Lancaster in the first quarter, that not once did the Roses gain possession of the ball.

The second half was a different story, however. Lancaster marched 37 yards to the Reading 15, where Don Schneider, a thorn in Reading's side all day, broke loose for Lancaster's only score. Delewski on the defense and White on the offense were the stand-outs for Reading in its second straight victory.



READING VS. EASTON
13—19

If Reading's football team never sees Vic Zansitis again, they'll be plenty satisfied. This shifty halfback scored two touchdowns in helping Easton end Reading's three game streak, 19 to 13.

Easton lost no time in going to work, rolling up a 19-0 lead midway in the second quarter. One of their touchdowns came as the result of a beautiful 74 yard run by Zansitis. But the Knights didn't give up as would be expected when a team is losing 19-0. White sparked the Knights in a drive to Easton's 47. Davis then heaved a long pass which was caught by May for the score which made it 19-6 at half. Reading came back in the second half and pushed Easton all over the field. They couldn't score, however, until late in the final quarter when a pass, Daron to Kageos, gave Reading its second score. Although their three game winning streak was ended, the Knights covered themselves with glory when they fought back to make a close game from what looked to be a runaway.

READING VS. LEBANON

Lebanon just didn't have a chance as Reading High's surprising football team battered its way to its third straight victory, 14 to 0.

Four thousand five hundred fans saw Elmer Davis, Reading quarterback, heave two touchdown passes to Brooke Shugars. The first Reading touchdown was set up by a bone-crushing 60 yard drive to Lebanon's 17 yard line. Davis then faded back and threw the first of his touchdown passes to Shugars, who was waiting in the end zone. The Knights' second score came midway in the second period when Davis threw a pass to Shugars, who made a thrilling catch in the end zone. Although Shugars scored both Reading touchdowns, Lebanon's biggest headache was trying to stop White. Time and time again this tricky halfback shook himself loose for long gains as he led Reading High to its third victory.

READING VS. POTTSVILLE
14—12

Reading High finished their football season in a blaze of glory, downing Pottsville 14-12. It was the first time a Reading team had beaten Pottsville on its own field for twenty-five years.

Pottsville opened the scoring by marching 65 yards in the first quarter for the game's first touchdown. Reading's first score came on a 39 yard drive with Wilbur Souders lugging the ball over from the six-yard line. Delewski, a standout on defense all day, split the uprights to make it 7-6 in Reading's favor. Reading's second score was set up when Meredith Kemp, husky guard, intercepted a Pottsville pass and raced 76 yards before he was pulled down from behind on the Pottsville seven. Souders again scored two plays later, with Delewski adding the extra point. Pottsville scored again late in the final period when officials ruled pass interference on the Reading three-yard line. Three plays later Pottsville scored their second touchdown.

And so Reading High closed another football season with what is an impressive record when one considers the very bad start.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

Reading High's football stars of future years, its Junior Varsity team, had a record of two wins and four defeats for the 1941 season. Although they lost to strong teams from Allentown, Lebanon, and Shillington, they did succeed in beating Lancaster and the Hill School Reserves. Coaches Harris, Horine, and Billinger uncovered many potential stars, including such backfield prospects as Binder and Salamone. Although no one gave much thought to these boys, they practiced hard all season and we can rest assured that Reading High football will be in capable hands for the next few years.

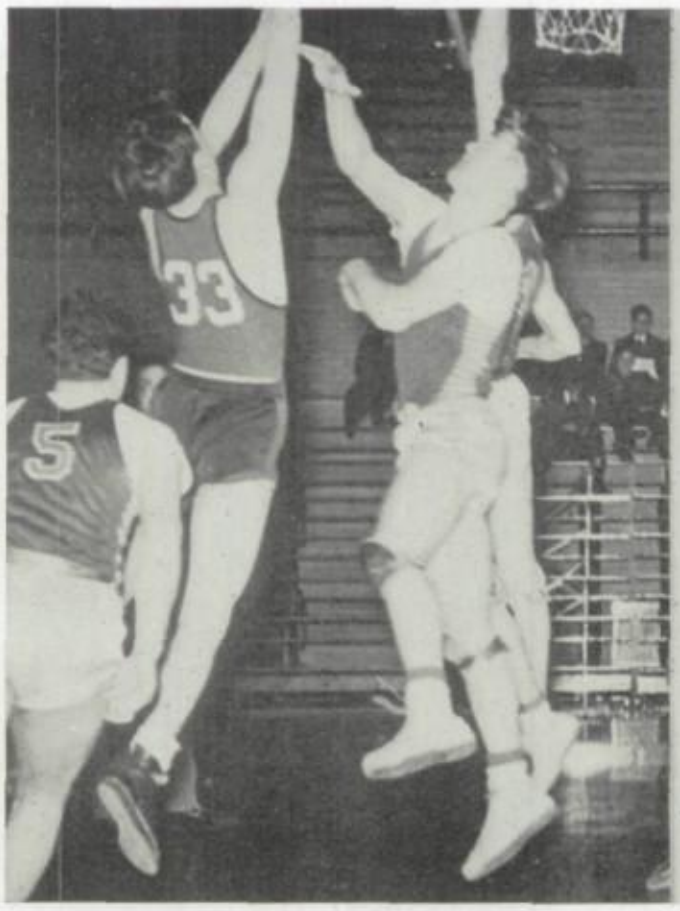
BASKETBALL LEAGUE GAMES

Although they failed to win the Central Pennsylvania championship, Reading High's 1941–42 basketball team did succeed in keeping intact Coach Smith's record of never having a team finish lower than second place. The Knights finished in a second place tie with John Harris behind the undefeated William Penn team. Harry Heiner, flashy junior forward, brought further glory to Reading by copping the league scoring championship with 140 points. Edgie Kurowski, another Reading threat, finished third in the scoring. The Knights got off on the wrong foot by losing the opening game to William Penn 42-29. Wright with 16 points proved to be the big gun for the Harrisburg boys. The Knights rebounded, however, by smashing Lancaster 46-31 and by nosing out Steelton 38-34 in a thriller. Harry Heiner and Edgie Kurowski were the main factors in these wins as they started out for league scoring honors. The Knights then traveled to Harrisburg to lose to a fighting John Harris team 37-34, despite Heiner's and Kurowski's 20 points. Lebanon caught our Knights on the rebound and absorbed a 25-24 defeat as Kurowski bombarded the rims for 16 points. The Knights continued their winning streak by trouncing York 49-22. They ran into trouble against William Penn, losing a thriller 39-37. Lancaster bowed to Reading a second time by the score of 64-35 before Steelton nudged the Knights in a 38-37 game. The Red Knights closed the season in a blaze of glory, winning their last three games. They trounced John Harris 51-27 to gain revenge for their previous setback. Lebanon then fell before the Knights by a 47-25 score, and the team closed the season by downing York 52-31. Harry Heiner ran wild in the last three games to win the scoring crown and to lead Reading to a second-place tie.



NON-LEAGUE BASKETBALL

In their non-league games Reading High was very successful, garnering seven wins in eight starts. The Knights opened the season with an easy win over Patton Trade 52-30. "Himmy" Wickel was the spearhead of the Reading attack with 14 points. Harry Heiner contributed 19 points as Reading crushed Pottstown 49-25. Bethlehem was the next victim, 33-28. Heiner again paced the Knights. The Knights extended their non-league streak to five games by downing Allentown 44-37 and Hershey Industrial School 49-27. Against Hershey, Captain Fake went on a scoring spree, bagging 17 points. In the next game, an underdog Tamaqua team threw a scare into Reading, but they were nosed out 39-36. Young led Tamaqua with 18 counters, but Kurowski helped the Knights stave off defeat by snaring 12 points. Our county neighbors, Mt. Penn, came to Northwest confident that they could beat the Knights, but they were trounced 43-19 as Harry Heiner racked up 14 points. This game proved that even the best county teams aren't a match for Reading High. Reading closed its regular season with a defeat 44-36, at the hands of a well-balanced Bethlehem team. Captain Ira Fake stood out for a losing cause with 14 points as the Knights ended a very successful season: 15 victories against 5 losses. This record is outstanding when one realizes that Coach Smith started the season without any holdovers from last year's team.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

Eighteen wins against two defeats is a record to be proud of. That's the record our J. V. Basketball team, compiled this year as they won the league championship for the fifth straight year. Our baby Rockets gained 18 straight wins before they lost their last two games to York and Bethlehem. Jack Brennan, George Dries, Pete Komlodi, and Runt Williams are just a few of the players who helped the team win the championship.

BASEBALL

Reading High's baseball team started out for their fourth straight championship with high hopes. Fine work on the mound by Don Rhoads and Earl Geiss in victories over Birdsboro and Allentown sent the Knights off to a good start. George Smith, veteran shortstop, has been pounding the ball hard and gives promise of developing into a star. Earl Hartman, Elmer Davis, and Iggy Kageos are also performing well at their positions. Coaches Rock and Smith started out the season with Smith and Geiss as the only holdovers, but they have found boys showing fine ability to fill the other positions on the team.

TRACK

Getting off to a bad start by finishing eighth at the Penn Relays, Reading High's track team hopes to make a good showing in the District 3 meet as well as in the state meet. They face a tough schedule which includes dual meets with Allentown and Bethlehem as well as the quadrangular meet at Lancaster. Jakie May leads the squad and has a good chance of winning the state championship, since he has already soared 12 feet in the pole vault. Lou Vastardis and Jim Delp, in the distance runs, and White, Steck, and Green in the sprints should also become big point winners. Dick Beyerle is the only holdover in the weight events, and he should perform well in the javelin throw. The coaches aren't too hopeful of a good season because of the weakness in the weight events.

CROSS-COUNTRY

Even though they failed to win the state title, the 1941 cross-country team was one of the best Reading High has ever produced. Led by Captain Louis Vastardis, Marks Glass, Jim Delp, Ed Preska, Stan Wisnieski, Johnny Adams, and Dick Beyerle, the team won seven straight meets before they lost out in the state finals. In their string of victories, the team numbered such meets as the District 3 meet, the Eastern Pennsylvania Regional meet, and the Conference Run. Vastardis brought further honor to the school by winning the District meet in record time and by later winning the Conference title. The team lost their final meet of the season at the State finals at Penn State by finishing a close third behind the strong Altoona and Mt. Lebanon teams.

SOCCER

Although it finished the season with only one win, the soccer team had what can be considered a very successful season. Among its accomplishments was holding a powerful Bethlehem team to two ties in two games. Twice the team tied Hellertown, another school noted for its strong soccer. The team gained its one victory at the expense of Lancaster and suffered defeat at the hands of Girard College. The team's lone holdover from last year was "Runt" Williams, Junior halfback, who was captain of a team composed mostly of underclassmen. These boys should develop into real stars; soccer has a bright future at Reading High.

SECOND ROW—Jack Davis, Thomas Newkirk, Stephen Winters, Richard Delong, Homer Angstadt, Phillip Heckman.

SWIMMING

Reading High's swimming team succeeded in winning only one meet out of seven; yet they did produce several outstanding stars. Such boys as Hobbing in the breast stroke and dash, Carts in the back stroke, and Carpousis in the 100 and 220-yard freestyle brought honor to the school with their victories. Such strong teams as Allentown, York, and Lancaster were among the teams which managed to down the Knights. A veteran Coatesville team proved to be the one victim by the score of 38-28. This was the first win registered by the Knights in sixteen starts. Coach Davis had only four veterans returning from last year's squad, with the rest of the team just getting their first experience in meets.

GOLF

Reading's 1942 golf team with Bill Alexander and "Babe" DiSalvo as the most experienced holdovers face an ambitious fourteen match schedule which includes such teams as Abington and Hershey. Coach Brucher's charges hope to capture the league championship despite the loss of Johnny Markel, three time P.I.A.A. champ. Bill Alexander looms as the Knight's biggest point getter on the basis of his sparkling performance in leading the team to an early season victory over Lancaster.

Dave Joseph and Taub were impressive in early season wins. The Knights defeated F. & M. Academy 8-1 after splitting two matches with Muhlenberg High.

SECOND ROW: Stanley Smolnick, Lee Spangler, Kenneth Floren, David Joseph.

INTRA MURAL BASKETBALL

This year in cooperation with the physical fitness program, Reading High sponsored an intra mural basketball league. This league consisted of eight teams which went under the names of different colleges. Duke, led by Lee Spangler, led the league during the early part of the season but faded at the end to finish in fourth place. Rhode Island, Michigan, and Duquesne all finished with spurts to tie for first place, with five wins and two defeats apiece. In the play-offs, Rhode Island downed Duquesne in the first game in a thrilling battle, 40-39. In the finals Rhode Island, captained by Bob Mayer, swamped Michigan, 48-37, despite Ed McInroy's fine work. This win gave Rhode Island State the championship of the league. Other teams in the league besides the first four were Penn State, Long Island, Seton Hall, and Notre Dame. Jim DeLong won the unofficial scoring championship of the league.

SPEEDBALL

Speedball, introduced only last year, had a registration of fifty-nine players. At the first meeting, girls skilled in the sport practiced beside girls who were green. Before practices really began, however, the girls were taught rules and regulations, skills, and techniques in handling the ball.

Ruth Gaul was elected manager and Marilyn Kline, assistant manager. Ruth Kemmerer, Catherine Bixler, and Anna Florczak were chosen captains of the senior, junior, and sophomore teams respectively.

The outstanding games of the season were played on the nineteenth and twenty-fourth of November. Although the senior team won each time, the sophomores came forward with outstanding plays. A senior victory was expected because of the advantage of experience; nevertheless, the sophomore team made an excellent showing. Thirty-one participants received their well-earned award of one hundred points.

HOCKEY

Because of the polio scare and delayed physical examinations, hockey got off to a bad start this year. Upon the re-opening of school, however, practice was resumed under the capable direction of Miss McHose.

Edith Stern was chosen manager; Ladora Einsel, assistant manager. These girls became captains of two teams which held many scrimmages.

On November 18, the after-school hockey groups sponsored a play day. Muhlenberg, Wilson, Wyomissing, and Shillington High Schools participated. One hour was spent in playing games and testing for accuracy skill. Everyone had an enjoyable time at the play day which closed the hockey season.

BASKETBALL

The enthusiastic shot for the basket, the blowing of the whistle, and the calling of fouls ushered in the basketball season. The girls elected Fern Templin, manager, and Anna Florczak, assistant manager.

On February 23, the Girls' Athletic Association sponsored a Basketball Play Day as part of the "Hale America Program." Girls from Reading, Kutztown, Oley, Mohnton, and Fleetwood high schools were received by a reception committee of club members and were divided into teams. These groups had a chance to get acquainted and display their basketball skills.

The following girls were outstanding scorers during the season: Anna Ruchlewicz 194, Alice Dautrich 174, and Dorothy Stremba 150.

The last game of the season was held after school on March 23: Team 1 versus Team 4 met in a game that kept everyone on needles and p'ns. The score was tie at the half, but the ever-powerful Team 1 came through with victory, 23-21.

The teams were placed in the following order in the league: Team 1, Team 4, Team 6, Team 3. Team 2, and Team 5.

After instruction in the fundamentals of the game, girls were placed on teams. Mary Hagan, Elizabeth Mastidino, Vilma Schelly, and Mary Webb were chosen captains of the four squads.

The preliminary league was then started. When the practice games were completed, the final league started its play-offs.

During practice, enthusiasm was unusually high. The girls who turned out this year were especially skilled in this ever-popular sport.

After the final league commenced, stiff competition raged among the teams.

SWIMMING

The aquatic-minded girls of Reading High turned out in full swing this year. Every Tuesday afternoon the girls gathered at the "Y" for their weekly plunge. They elected Pauline Knauer manager. Under the direction of Miss Wadsworth, the girls were divided into three groups, beginners, intermediates, and advanced.

The girls were required to pass tests in order to get their points. Elsbeth Beaver was the only one who passed the second advanced test. Sophie Gay, Carmelita Maysich, and Ruth Levan passed the first advanced test. Mary Watson and Louise Fickner passed the intermediate test.

On April 21, the Swimming Play Day was held. The girls were divided according to their skill and various games were played. The committee for the Play Day includes Pauline Knauer, chairman, Sophie Gay, and Carmelita Maysich.

Because of the large registration, the bowling club this year had to be divided into two large groups. Accordingly, two days, Monday and Tuesday, were set aside to accommodate these groups. The girls then chose the day which best fitted into their plans.

Mary Webb was chosen as manager and Marjorie Arnold, her assistant.

One group of thirty-five girls held their first meeting on Monday, October sixth at the Reading Company Y. M. C. A.

The following is a record of the highest scores:

BOWLING

The Tuesday bowling group was composed of forty-four girls. Their first meeting was held on Tuesday, October 7, 1941 at the Reading Company Y. M. C. A.

Scores, in general, were rather low because of lack of practice during vacations and also because of inexperience. However, competition developed precision and scores improved.

The Tuesday bowlers having the highest scores follow:

Anna Florczak	182
Pearl Kutz	165
Betty Clouser	158
Eleanor Fisher	150
Jean Tomlinson	148

TENNIS

Among the spring sports, tennis is one of the most popular. This fact is shown by the large registration of girls and the interest shown during practice.

Under the direction of Miss Wadsworth, the girls were taught the fundamentals of serving, scoring, and form. Those who had experience received coaching for improving their technique.

After the girls were familiar with the sport, a ladder tournament was started.

BADMINTON

FOURTH ROW—Virginia Heckleman, Betty Manegold, Anna Cichowski, Jeannette Swoyer, Mary Huber, June Whalley.

BADMINTON

Badminton attracted many girls this year. Instead of making badminton a seasonal sport, the group formed an all-year-round club with Betty Gibson as manager and Elizabeth Cooper, assistant manager. The preliminary badminton tournament was won by Ruth Gaul. The field was narrowed down when Gaul defeated Leister, Kramer defeated Eckenrhode, and Gibson defeated Kramer. Gaul and Gibson then battled for the title, with Gaul emerging the victor.

Through ten weeks of rivalry, the final league of badminton came to an end with two seniors in the running. The championship game was held between Ruth Gaul and Betty Gibson. For forty-five minutes, the battle waged and shifted back and forth across the net; but finally ended with Ruth Gaul the champion.
